RE: COLLATERAL

In order to receive a return of your collateral from your bail bond agent you must deliver a copy of the court order resulting in a release of the bond by the court to the bail bonding agent or the surety company. Pursuant to 12-7-109(1)(d.5) C.R.S., within ten working days of such delivery to your bail bonding agent or the surety company your collateral must be returned.

Bail bonding agents are regulated by the Colorado Division of Insurance. TO ENSURE THE PROPER RETURN OF YOUR COLLATERAL, THE DIVISION RECOMMENDS YOU HAND DELIVER THE COURT'S BOND DISCHARGE/BOND RELEASE TO THE BAIL BONDING AGENT. GET A RECEIPT FROM THE BAIL BONDING AGENT SHOWING THE DATE YOU DELIVERED THE DISCHARGE/RELEASE. If you deliver the bond discharge/release to the bail bonding agent by mail, use certified mail, return receipt requested, with another certified copy to the surety company. YOU SHOULD RETAIN A COPY OF ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO THIS BAIL BOND. Please go to the Division's web site at www.dora.state.co.us/insurance and click the tab on the left of the web page titled "bail bonding information", scroll down and click on " a publication on Bail Bonds", scroll down and click on "Your guide to Bail Bonds in Colorado" for more information on your rights as a consumer.

Pursuant to 12-7-108(10)(a) C.R.S. (2004) enacted in House Bill 04-1260, the bail bonding agent, with your consent, may use your collateral to secure the following obligations:

- 1. Compliance with the bond issued on behalf of the defendant (which may incur costs associated with recovering the defendant should the defendant fail to appear for any court appearance associated with this bond if the court revokes or forfeits the defendant's bond);
- 2. Any balance due on the premium, commission, or fee for the bond; and
- 3. Any related costs incurred by the agent as a result of issuing the bond.

I have read and understand this Disclosure Statement and consent that the bail bonding agent in this matter may use my collateral to secure the above obligations.
